

CORROSION CONTROL TRENDS

Every three years MSUD arranges for water samples from 30 homes within our service area that meet the requirements of the Lead and Copper Rule. Reported here, in accordance with the regulation, are the 90th percentile result. This means 90% of the samples collected were below this reported value. In truth, most samples contain no detectable levels of lead.